the Mind

Building

And the Spirit

Foreword

High school is a time in which much building is done in our lives. In the duration of four years, we begin to build our characters, mature our values, and define our roles in life as moral Christians. Also, the building of the Bonner community is achieved through our participation and interest in school activities, sports, and academics. Substantially, though, the foundations for building better minds, better spirits are laid during high school. With continuous effort and perseverance, these foundations can be achieved. Knowledge in all areas of academics can be expanded through study and learning. The knowledge of self and of one's moralistic views, as well as of spiritual needs, can be acquired through continual spiritual guidance and through one's cooperation in religious activities such as communion services, St. Ed's and retreats.

Foundations, like purity, integrity, and loyalty, are built for tomorrow, today. Bonner helps build the mind and the spirit, and works towards forming better men, so that in the future the world will be a better place to live. Just as Bonner, the building and the community, is "built to last", so too are the foundations that we construct in these few, but very crucial, years in high school.

Administration

In looking at the administration of our school, we can see that it greatly affects our course of learning. The administration has been instrumental in the building of young men through their tremendous effort and concern. It has helped lay foundations for the future, even during times when bad weather slowed construction. The administration consists of many people who have aided us in our building process.

First is our Principal, Fr. Horn, who gave us many opportunities to build foundations for our faith. He provided the freedom for us to build in all directions: spiritually, academically, and socially. He has been vital in building the spirit which enlivens Monsignor Bonner High School.

Our Vice-Principal, Mr. Charles Steckel, supervised the course of building, and did so very efficiently. He devoted much time and effort, usually behind the scenes, to strengthen the foundations of learning. He displayed steadfast patience and dedication required each day in running the school smoothly.

Mr. Ralph Celidonio, Director of Studies, helped in the process of building academically. Mr. Celidonio provided us with a variety of excellent courses from which to choose. He was also always there to give advice when asked. He is mainly responsible for laying the foundations of building academically and socially for the incoming freshmen.

Mr. Arthur Jacobs, Activities Director, made sure that ways to build socially were always present. He sustained social interests by supplying us with many diverse activities which enabled us to enjoy our four years at Bonner.

Deans of Men, Mr. Edward Fornias and Mr. Robert McLaughlin, served a vital role in our process of learning. Without these men, the foundations that are laid would be subject to erosion and would in some cases even collapse. The Deans of Men gave us the self-control and discipline to support adequately the frameworks of our buildings.

Without all these men, our building procedure would not have been successfully completed. Each one of these men gave us their undivided attention so that our foundations would be constructed and finished in the best manner possible. Thank you from the Class of '84.

The Junior Class Officers: Row 1: P. Verna, Mr. Denny, Fr. Mostardi, J, Hunt. Row 2: T. Farrell, G. Downs, A. O'Connor, B. Montgomery.

Junior year is an important stepping-stone in a person's life. It is the year in which boys make the big transition into men. Junior year is a big influence in all areas of life, especially academics, influencing college decisions greatly.

With the work which goes along with such decisions also goes an increase in enjoyment of the best years of one's lives. This enjoyment was seen this past year in the Eighth Grade Mixer, sponsored by the Class of 1985, and in the Luau, which was sponsored by the Don Ho Club. Also, the Junior Ring Mass and Dance, held on December 17, 1983, brought a common bond to the members of the Class and their parents.

Sophomore Homerooms

Sophomore year is an in-between year. Students have grown from Freshman year, but there is still a long road ahead of them. Helping the Sophomores along this road was the guidance of Moderator Fr. Burbine. Planning such activities as the Soph Hop, the highlight of the year, made the year interesting for those involved. Mandatory gym for all Sophomores also added to an enjoyable year.

Freshmen Homerooms

Freshman year is a year of transition. Students must adapt to a totally new educational environment. Hopefully they transform from inexperienced newcomers to matured students by the end of their Freshman year.

Several aids are given to students to help them along the road to maturity. An intramurals basketball league was held on Wednesday nights, and the Frosh Hop, of course, was one of the main events of the year.

It was a year of change for the Freshman, but the change brought much improvement.

Junior Jim Duffy wonders "Hey, where did everybody go?"

Ms. Turnbull's team again displays their winning style.

Intramurals

The Intramural program has long been an important part of Bonner's athletic curriculum. Moderator, Mr. Charles McLaughlin, inspires great rivalry among homerooms in a variety of activities. With football in the Fall, street hockey in the Winter, and mushball in the Spring, each homeromm competes first for its class title and then for the school championship. Intramurals this year provided a great sense of pride within homerooms, especially Ms. Turnbull's homeroom who captured their third straight title in football. This program also provides a great way to participate in sports without joining a varsity program.

Junior Bill Coco asks, "How could he miss that one?"

Juniors Pat Muldoon and Mike Mullen put in another cold day on the hockey court.

Band

The Bonner Band, under the direction of Moderator Ms. Diana Satterfield, consisted of about 70 students from both Bonner and Prendie. They practiced about 6 to 8 hours a week including Sundays. The hard work of the band was shown at both home football games and playoff games. Their halftime performance was a variety of Dixie-land, Broadway, and current hits such as "Gloria."

The Band also performed this year at a Phillies game, and the Annual Spring Concert in May. Also in May, they took a trip to Virginia as a combination field trip and performance. Each member got to visit such places as Busch Gardens, The Olde Country, and the Inner Harbor in Baltimore. This year's band also played for the school production of Man of LaMancha.

The officers this year were Dan McGroary, President; Michele Panuse, Vice-President; Vincent Long, Secretary; Chris Long, Treasurer; Jim Plower, Drum Major; and Kathy Cotterall, Drill Team Captain.

Dungeons and Dragons

Another new club at Bonner this year was the Dungeons and Dragons Club, moderated by Mr. Gallagher. Students broke up into groups and met once a week to play the game. Dungeons and Dragons is a fantasy game whereby participants are given adventures to work out. Adventures are decided by Dungeon Masters. Students enjoyed their year of fantasy and fun.

Spirit Clubs

Gangreen is a student organization geared toward cheering two of Bonner's sports -football and basketball. This soulful group of students supported the school this year in an extremely important manner - by spurring student participation, and by giving the players an emotional boost. Moderator Mr. Denny, an ardent supporter of all Bonner activities, is responsible for much of the club's success.

Who is crazy enough to wear Hawaiian shirts and obnoxious ties on Fridays? The members of Mr. Denny's Don Ho Club. The club sponsored a successful Luau in January and, like Gangreen, was an important source of school spirit.

BBB/Lit. Music

The Bonner Bulletin Board is a radio program which is broadcast to all the homerooms during the activity period. It provides important information for the upcoming day, such as club meetings and which teachers are out. Fr. Genito sees to it that his staff puts some life into the morning.

The Liturgical Music Group is directed by Fr. Joseph Genito. The group played at all Bonner masses this year, spurring the rest of the classes to the true spirit of participation at Mass. Students from both Prendie and Bonner make up the group.

Bulletin

The Bonner Bulletin committed itself to providing indepth information about significant changes and news events that took place at Bonner. This was a very good year for the Bulletin. The staff had four editors: Seniors Mike Angelina and Steve MacNichol, and Juniors Mike Mullen and Jim Caponi. With the help of Moderator Mr. Kain, the staff produced excellent coverage of the school year. Standouts this year were the Chaplain's Column, Movie Revues, interviews with famous people such as Stephen Freind (State Representative), Dennis Christopher (Actor), John Cappelletti (Football Player), and Art Hunter (Basketball Coach).

Bon-Aire

Despite long hours and a lot of hard work, the Bon-Aire staff succeeded in piecing together a remarkable yearbook. Under the guidance of Moderator Mrs. Bette Engblom, the staff produced a descriptive and colorful account of the memories, events, and people of the 1983-84 school year.

Co-editors Mike Methlie and Paul Dudley worked arduously with the section editors and staff to meet the deadlines. Copy editor Mike Angelina and his staff were responsible for capturing the school year in words.

C.S.C.

The Community Service Corps, under the guidance of Fr. Murray, has sponsored many school and community projects. It's goal is to take the Bonner community outside of the school and to help those in need. They have sponsored events this year such as the Thanksgiving drive, Bread Basketball, tutoring, and visits to Little Flower Manor.

Mathletes

The Scott's Hi-Q team consisted of five seniors and four juniors. Over 3 matches it competed against teams from other schools in a quiz show format. This show is sponsored by Scott Paper Company. Teams are awarded points for answering questions ranging from literature and history to mathematics and sports. The team's strong showing was a credit to the Bonner Community.

The Bonner Mathletes, competing against more than 50 other teams, once again made the Bonner Community proud of its mathematical excellence. Under the direction of Mr. Vincent Donohue, the A Team won the Catholic League title, and the B Team finished second.

Scott's Hi-Q Team, 1st row: M. Pietrafitta, P. Bobnak, T. Marturano, M. Angelina; 2nd row: C. Sapsis, J. Dasher, M. Methlie, M. Mullen, Mr. Bulley (Moderator).

Leo Luistro types his project for the Science Club.

Science Club

The Science Club is another new addition to Bonner activities this year. Mr. Gallagher volunteered to moderate the club and help students put together challenging experiments to work on after school. Interest is expanding and the club proves to be successful in increasing enrollment.

Junior Frank Rossi works on an electronics kit for the club.

The cast gathers around senior Joe Leinhauser to hear him play the guitar.

Man of LaMancha

Bonner performed the award-winning "Man of LaMancha" this year. Cast members proved equal to the challenge since this play has never been performed by a high school in this area. The cast, made up of 75 members from Bonner and Prendie, practiced hard on Tuesday and Thursday nights and Sunday afternoons. The successful run proved their hard work was not in vain.

The play was under the direction of Miss Diana Satterfield. She also conducted the orchestra during the play. Assisting Miss Satterfield was Mr. Castellano as vocal director and set director.

Stage Crew

Stage Crew members worked hard this year setting up the stage for school assemblies, and putting together sets for the school play. Students also were responsible for lighting and sound equipment. Stage Manager Paul Bellino had his hands full coordinating the different elements of the stage so that any production ran smoothly. The crew worked successfully on the many activities performed on stage this year.

Mothers' Club

Bonner's Mothers' Club had a very successful year aiding the Bonner Community. Supporting the publication of the school newspaper, the women raised money to cover printing costs. They also sponsored trips to Reading Shopping outlets and the shore casinos. Keeping the mothers in touch with the school and each other was the goal that was successfully accomplished this year.

New members register at the club's first meeting.

Fathers' Club

The Father's Club had a very busy year controlling crowds and collecting tickets at the football and basketball games. They also ran a very successful C.Y.O. grade school basketball tournament, an essay contest for Bonner students, and a well attended Communion Breakfast. Meeting once a month, these men successfully developed programs that expanded the Bonner Community in a positive direction.

Members of the Father's Club spent long hours planning their numerous projects.

Following the Christian spirit, each meeting began with a prayer.

Vo-Tech

The Vocational Technical schools offer students the opportunity to become learned and skilled in a technical vocation. Vo Tech gives those students who have career goals in a technical field a firm basis and preparation for a job opportunity. This technical instruction coupled with the knowledge one receives at Bonner makes for a well-rounded experience.

Football

The Friars of 1983, led by a strong defense, marched to a spot in the Catholic League playoffs for the third year in a row. Contrary to what many friar fans had anticipated, the team came from a record of 3 pre-season losses to a league record of 4-2-1. The playoffs found the Friars facing Neumann, whom they tied during the regular season. And it was here that they ended the year with an overall record of 4-6-1.

Punter Mike Kollhoff, Defensive End Tony Amoroso, Corner Back Tom Galia, Offensive Guard Fran Mitros, Running Back Paul MacNichol, and Linebacker Ed Monaghan brought honor to the team by being named to the First Team All-Catholic. Also, Defensive Back Jerry Hunt was named to the Second Team All-Catholic, and Honorable Mentions were received by Quarterback Mike Kolhoff, Defensive End John Stankiewicz, Linebacker Tom McGee, and Defensive Back Dennis Hennelly.

Bonner's Junior Varsity Football Team finished second in the Catholic League this year. The J.V. team could be seen in action every Monday after school on the front field. With practice everyday and summer football camp, this fine Football team produced a 7-3 record overall and 5-2 in the Catholic League. There are no playoffs in the Junior Varsity League.

Bonner's Freshman Football team had a very impressive year going 6-1 in the Catholic League. Even though this team didn't get officially organized until mid-September, they could be found practicing everyday after school on the baseball field. The Freshmen would play every Saturday morning starting in the beginning of October til the Catholic League Championship against O'Hara on Nov. 19 where the Frosh were defeated 20-8. They had finished second in the Catholic League.

Soccer: Southern Division Champs

By way of a sparkling effort, tremendous defense, and clutch performances, the 1983 Friars captured the Southern Division Championship. They attained the championship by defeating Carroll and St. Joe's Prep in the playoffs. In the Catholic League title match, the team fell to Archbishop Ryan, a team that was considered by many to be the best team to play in the Catholic League.

Thanks in large part to a staunch defense, the Friars put together a 12-1-1 record in the regular season. A trio of All-Catholics led this outstanding defense. Juniors Dave Kane and Andy Spence, who was also named All-State, stopped many attackers, thereby aiding Junior goal keeper Marty McGonigle in recording a record number of shutouts.

On the other side of the coin, the Friars displayed a powerful offense. All Catholic Senior Brian Burke, a tenacious competitor, was a superb playmaker and goal scorer all year, while Junior Jim Farrell was also a dangerous offensive threat. Perhaps the best example of this staunch defense and powerful offense and the highlight of the regular season was the 4-0 thrashing of defending champ O'Hara.

Soccer

The Varsity Soccer team was not the only team to have an outstanding season this year. The Junior Varsity squad compiled a 7-2-2 record. Led by the defense of Sophomore sweeper Rich Costigan and Sophomore goalkeeper Chris Coneys, and the offensive production of Junior Ritch Vanello, the Friars finished a strong third place.

The Freshman team put together a 6-1-1 record. Strong defense by goalkeeper Rob Aughe and Sweeper Chuck Feltman, and outstanding play by Matt Hanley and Art Hoath headed the team in a winning direction. This young talent gives the Friars a bright future.

Varsity Basketball

Catholic League Champs
Southern Division Champs

The Varsity basketball team successfully defended their Catholic League title this year. Under a new coaching staff headed by Art Hunter, a former Bonner Graduate, the Friars remained undefeated in the first half of the season. Losing only one game to Neumann in the second half of the season, Bonner went on to win the playoffs and the title by defeating the Northern division champ LaSalle high school.

The Friars had a heavy schedule this year because of outside tournaments. They took part in the Seagull Classic in Atlantic City and placed second behind Ben Franklin. They also participated in the prestigious Alhambra Tournament in Towson, Maryland in the Spring.

This year the team was led by All-American, All-State, All-Catholic Rodney Blake at center. He succeeded in breaking the all time scoring record of 1,018 points previously held by Mike Hauer. Helping Rodney were seniors Jim Welde, Dave Koskinen, Steve Eiola, and Sean Harding. Other contributors were Tom McKee, Ed McCrystal, and Ivan Brown.

J.V. & Frosh

The Junior Varsity had a decent season this year winning a lot of their games under pressure. Opening up for the Varsity in the 6:30 and 1:00 slots, the J.V. held their own against a strong Southern Division.

The Freshman team playing on Monday and Friday afternoons had a very good showing in the Southern Division. Winning several of their games by wide margins, the Freshman proved that they will be around for a long time playing basketball.

Baseball

Led by the veteran Seniors and the talented Juniors, the 1983 Varsity baseball team missed a playoff birth by a mere two games. Even though the Friars had a rough beginning, thanks to an explosive bench, they were able to bring up their record to a more respectable playing level by mid-season.

The 1984 season was even more successful with the return of a very talented team. With the strong coaching of Mr. Stratton and Mr. Vent, Bonner turned in a banner performance in '84.

J.V. Hockey

This year's J.V. Hockey team proved to be one of the best teams put together by Bonner. Key plays by Fred Brenna, John Kuzmic, and Joe McGettigan helped the team score and win many games. Defense by Jim Duffy, John Dolan and Goalie Harry McWilliams kept the opposing teams in check. With talent like this, Bonner will remain a powerhouse for years to come.

Varsity Hockey

The 1983-84 Hockey team finished their best year to date by winning The E.H.S.H.L. Championship. Captain Kevin Dolan and alternatives Joe Cunningham, Jeff Craskey, and Kevin Cummings led their team in checking and scoring.

High points this year were the defeat of Springfield at the Spectrum by 9-5, and the selection of Kevin Dolan, Tom Dolan and Bill Mellon to play in the E.H.S.H.L. All-Star game.

Track

Through the instruction and guidance of Coach Paul Croley, and the determination and skill of the team members, the 1983-84 Track team enjoyed another successful season.

Traditionally the Friars strong point has been their distance runners. This year was no exception. During the year there were three separate running seasons - Cross Country, Indoor Track and Outdoor Track. Four members of the Cross Country team made All-Catholic and these four served the nucleus of a successful indoor and outdoor season.

Another enormous asset to the team was the return of the previous year's Indoor Track MVP Bill Super. Bill was again among the best high jumpers in the area as well as Bonner's best sprinter. Other strong contributors were Senior Joe Manion in the half mile, Senior Tom Galia in several events. Junior Greg Barringer took part in the long jump, and Junior Chris Sapsis and Sophomore Jim Racine took part in mid-distance events.

Cross Country

The 1983 Cross Country team raced to many victories this past year. At the Textile Invitational, they took the first place trophy for the "A" team race. They were undefeated in the County and for the second year in a row, they took the title "Delco Champs." Andy O'Connor, Matt Costello, Bill Donovan, and Bill Fitzmaurice all received the honors of All-Delco and All-Catholic. Bill Donovan, upon his recovery from an injury, broke the school record with a quick 14:56.

This team was the result of hard work and long miles put in not only by the members of the team, but also by the previous members upon whose shoulders it was built. In addition, Coach Paul Croley's excellent coaching and perseverance resulted in a winning combination.

Swimming

The 1983-84 Bonner Swim Team had a fine season, continuing its tradition of being one of the top teams in the Philadelphia Catholic Swimming League. The team was coached this year by Jim Nixon and Assistant Jack Raleigh, Jr., Mr. Skowronski served as Moderator.

This year the Sharks were led by Senior Co-Captains Tom Rafter and Sean Keefe, and aided by seniors Ed McElhiney and Dan Spicer.

Recruiting a large Freshman contingent, the team has formed a strong nucleus, and will be championship caliber for years to come.

Crew

Crew is one of the most physically demanding sports that Bonner has to offer. The season started this year in November and continued until May. Led by Coach John Bannon and powered by several new boats, the 1983-84 Crew team put in fine performances in such races as the Stokesbury Regatta, and the Catholic, City, and National Championships.

Like ice hockey, the crew team is not financially supported by the school. Therefore, such fundraisers as tag day, chance selling, and the successful return of the Grease Band helped to fill the team's treasury and finance the new equipment.

Golf & Tennis

The tennis team, with Coach Charles Paislay as its ace, came off last year's successful season in which the team volleyed one game short of the playoffs. This year's team, which consisted of many returning players, proved to be an impressive and tough competitor. With Senior Mike Pietrafitta as a likely All-Catholic candidate, the tennis team sported a striking net performance in attaining playoff contention.

Under the excellent direction of Coach William Engblom, the golf team teed-off to another season of exceptional play. Faced with the challenge of matching last year's championship drive, the golf team proved to be grand successor. Outstanding golf by returning All-Catholic Sophomore Tom Feeney, and consistent efforts by the rest of the players helped make the golf team to be a driving force in the Catholic League.

Bowling

This year's team successfully defended their Catholic League title by making the playoffs and winning The Catholic League Title for the third year in a row.

Under the leadership of Coach Tony Turco and Tim Taggert, the team was able to put together another winning season. All-Catholic John Sulimay and Seniors Ray Saputelli, Brian Purcell, Ken Seiverd and Steve MacNichol helped spark the team to victory. Sophomore Rick Taggart duplicated his brilliant Freshman season and set a Southern Division record for a three game series total. The team's season was a success as usual.

Every year seniors are confronted with one of the biggest decisions of their lives - what to do after high school. Each year more and more seniors decide to go to college, and each year it becomes harder to get into college.

At Bonner, this year's seniors had a better chance of getting into college for a number of reasons. One reason was Bonner's Guidance office. With representatives from various colleges visiting almost every day, the annual college night and financial aid night, and the counseling of Fr. Melton and Mr. Bulley, seniors had quite a choice in selecting a good college. Another reason seniors found the admission to college easier was Bonner's Advanced Placement Program. Fashion preoccupied the minds of many Bonner seniors. As a result many different styles have graced the halls of Bonner over the last four years. One such style that gained popularity recently was the "G.Q." look, otherwise known as the Gentleman's Quarterly look (taken from the magazine of the same name). This consisted of the latest designer label clothes, narrow slacks, light colored shoes, two-tone shirts, and thin ties.

Because everyone at Bonner does not dress the same, other styles had emerged also. The "Bonner" look consisted of cords, V-neck sweater, collared shirt and tie. Since there had been a revival of the "50's" look, students were also allowed to wear a button down, dark green, varsity letter sweater, as part of the dress code. This, however, was rather slow in catching on.

Finally, another style seen often in the halls of Bonner was the "Preppy" look. Similar to the Bonner look, this style consisted of Izod sweaters, with the famous alligator, button-down oxford shirts, and docksiders or penny loafers.

Bonner's hallways never looked so good.

This year, as in the last few years, Senior had the opportunity to go off campus for a pr vate retreat. The retreats were held five time during the year. Each retreat consisted of 4 seniors and a team of Moderators. The retreat were held in Bangor, Pa., a place in the mou tains with beautiful surroundings and most o all, peace and quiet. It was a perfect place fo seniors to be alone and reflect upon their lives thier plans, and their goals.

The retreat team, headed by Fr. Joe Mostaro was made up of both priests and lay teacher They put in a great deal of time and effort t make the retreats a successful and memorab event for every senior.

A group picture of the first of five retreats given th year.
